

WEATHER

Local showers and not quite so warm tonight.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

EIGHTEENTH YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PA., SATURDAY, AUGUST 14th, 1920.

PRICE THREE CENTS

DRAMA OF LOVE PROVED TRAGEDY

Thompson Was Drawn to Sneering Girl by Resemblance to Daughter.

WAS JEALOUS OF GIRL

Feared Law if he Married Emmitsburg Maiden, Who Was Infatuated With Him. Suicide Was Plan.

That the infatuation of J. Ford Thompson, 52 years old, archeologist, scholar and artist, for Miss Mary Anna Sneeringer, 16-year-old waitress at her aunt's hotel in Emmitsburg, was born of her likeness to his daughter, who is in Paris with his legally separated wife, was one of the recent developments of the double suicide of the couple whose bodies were found in a woods near Emmitsburg Thursday.

It was learned Friday that the wealthy Washington clubman was extremely jealous of the girl. On this account Thompson is declared to have prevailed upon the girl, who was considered unusually bright and attractive, to wear plain clothes and to wear her hair in a manner not calculated to add to her beauty.

One of the unexplained features of the double suicide is a report, circulated Friday, that, although Thompson professed to be deeply in love with Miss Sneeringer, and had deplored the fact that the laws of the Catholic church forbid her marriage to him, he later, when the girl is said to have waived this objection to the wedding, raised civil legal obstacles to a marriage.

His control over the girl was so great that she gave up all her religious beliefs and remained away from church. Until they met she was a regular attendant at the Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, and a devout worshiper. Thompson, it is said, was an atheist.

The funeral of Miss Sneeringer was held this morning in Emmitsburg. Besides her parents she is survived by four sisters, Zita, Ruth, Corona and Josephine. Three aunts of the dead girl live near Gettysburg. They are Mrs. Allen Redding, Mrs. John Knox and Mrs. Leo Riley. The girl's mother, who was before her marriage Miss Rachael Pecher, formerly lived at Fairfield. Her grandfather, Francis Sneeringer, resides near Bonneville.

Feared Arrest For Bigamy

It was said that Mr. Thompson went to Emmitsburg about a week ago with the expressed intention of arranging for the wedding, and the girl decided to marry him in spite of the fact that he was "divorced". He then raised the question as to

(Continued on Third Page)

SEE FIRST ASPHALT POURED

Workmen Wear Wooden Shoes. Put on While Hot.

Many persons were attracted Friday afternoon to Chambersburg street where the McDonald Construction company is making Gettysburg's first reinforced asphalt street. The top layer material is hauled in trucks while hot from the heating plant on Stratton street, near the Western Maryland railroad. After it has been dumped on the street a shovel gang of twelve men spread out the asphalt to a thickness of one inch. Because of the high temperature of the asphalt the men wear thick wooden or canvas soled shoes. The heavy steam roller completes the job. A half block was completed Friday.

Boss O'Brien, who has charge of the men, is one of the pioneer asphalt workers in the east. He assisted in laying some of the first asphalt streets in Philadelphia and New York.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS

Joseph A. Himes Successful in Ohio Political Race.

Word has been received here of the nomination of Joseph A. Himes, formerly of New Oxford, for United States Congressman from the Canton, Ohio, district. Mr. Himes, a son of Mrs. Martha Himes, of New Oxford, ran at the Ohio primaries for the Republican nomination and was successful by a large majority.

TYPHOID FEVER

William McClell, of Hamilton township, is reported as having typhoid fever, to the local medical authorities.

PONY JUMPED ON FENDER OF CAR

Then Ran Away. Girl Fainted. No One Was Injured in Accident.

The fact that fourteen-year-old Mildred Hughes, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, Steinwehr avenue, happened to grasp the left instead of the right rein in the darkness, Friday night, is believed to have caused a runaway at Zeigler's Grove about 10.30 o'clock.

Mildred Hughes, Mrs. Hughes, two-year-old Fred and seven-year-old Edward Hughes, and Miss Grace Weaver were driving along the avenue from the benefit dance of the Gettysburg Independent baseball team at Round Top when Edward Spriggle, Western Maryland yardman, drove up in his touring car preparatory to rounding them.

Picking up the wrong line, Mildred Hughes, the driver, turned the pony toward instead of away from the machine. The pony landed on the fender of the machine before running away.

Serious results were prevented when Miss Weaver, who was carrying the two-year-old boy, managed to jump unharmed as did Mrs. Hughes and Edward. The occupants of the team were so excited naturally that they cannot explain in detail just how they managed to escape.

Monroe Weiser, Wilbur Geiselman, of town, and Samuel Mollinkof, state trooper, who happened to be driving behind the car, managed to catch up to the pony and stop it.

Miss Hughes, the only occupant of the pony cart during the run off, fainted from the excitement.

HOLD TRAMP FOR COURT

Man Picked Up at Aspers Given Hearing.

On information laid by Constable Maurice Hoffman, of Bendersville, Albert Bashant, of New York City, was held for court Friday evening after a brief hearing before Justice of the Peace John L. Hill. He is charged with being a tramp.

Bashant, who says he is an ex-soldier and was overseas during the war was picked up by deputy Sheriff Howard Hartman Tuesday evening when complaints were received from the vicinity of Aspers that the man was begging and throwing matches about the buildings.

The man, who says his "worldly name" is Albert Bashant, is thirty years old.

A FINAL SERIES

Breath of Life Found in Mr. Ward League.

Although Mr. Ward League had officially been declared dead, the result of the pulmotor efforts of Preston Tate and J. A. Holtzworth seems to have breathed a breath of life into the corpse and unless there is a relapse he will be seen Monday evening at the Playground at 6 o'clock.

An agreement has been reached to stage a five game series between the Second and Third Ward teams, the contests starting promptly at 6 o'clock.

WRECK DELAYED TRAIN

Passengers Reached Here More Than Hour Late.

A freight wreck near Myerstown on the main line of the Philadelphia and Reading was the cause of the evening train reaching Gettysburg an hour and twenty minutes late Friday evening.

Section hands are reported to have failed to flag an eastbound fast freight, after removing a rail, and the locomotive and six cars were derailed. The wreckage closed traffic both ways. Members of the crew escaped injury by jumping.

JAPANESE MAKE REPLY

(By Associated Press) Washington, Aug. 14—Japan's reply to the American note protesting against the Japanese occupation of the northern part of the island, Shaghalien, was received today at the State Department.

The note was described as a lengthy one and it was understood that it went thoroughly into the whole question of the Japan policy in Siberia.

FOR SALE: nine Chester White pigs. L. M. Wright, Aspers, Pa. United phone.—advertisement 1

STATE FRUIT MEN HERE NEXT WEEK

Horticulturists Plan to Visit Adams County Belt on Thursday.

TOURING THROUGH STATE

Will Tour Battlefield. Biglerville Hospital Auxiliary to Serve Luncheon Thursday Noon. Open to Public.

The apple belt of Adams county will be the objective on Thursday of a party of members of the state horticulturist association who are conducting their annual summer automobile run through the leading fruit districts of Pennsylvania.

On Monday the state horticulturists will tour the fruit districts in the vicinity of Pottstown and will spend the night in that city. Tuesday they will visit Dr. Funk, of Boyertown, who is well known among the Adams county fruit growers, and will continue then to Reading, Wernersville, Hummelstown, and Harrisburg where they will remain for the night.

Early Wednesday morning the horticulturists accompanied by either Governor William C. Sproul or Lieutenant Governor Edward E. Beidleman and Secretary of Agriculture Frederick Rasmussen will leave Harrisburg and proceed to York to take part in the dedication of the York Imperial Apple monument on the property of John C. Schmidt.

During this ceremony the state executive and Mr. Rasmussen will deliver addresses to be followed by Mr. Schmidt; Jonathan Jessop, the grandson of the Jonathan Jessop who originated the York Imperial apple; and Dr. S. W. Fletcher, of State College, who had charge of the Adams county apple survey a few weeks ago.

According to word received by E. C. Tyson, Flora Dale fruit grower, the horticulturists then plan to come to Gettysburg in time to tour the battlefield before darkness.

After spending Wednesday night in Gettysburg the men will leave here Thursday morning for a tour of Adams county.

Although the itinerary is subject to change on account of road conditions it is probable that the party will go from here to Fairfield, to Cashtown, Hilltown, Arendtsville, Biglerville, and Bendersville.

Members of the Biglerville auxiliary of the Annie M. Warner hospital will serve a dinner to the horticulturists and to all other persons desiring to attend, on Thursday at 12:00 o'clock. The meal will be served in the building of the Adams County Fruit Packing and Distributing Company and persons desiring to dine there must inform Miss Alice Longsdorf, Biglerville, before Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock.

Proceeds derived from the dinner will go into the hospital treasury.

AWAITS NAMING OF BAIL

Miller Case Probably Will Not Appear This Month.

Edward Miller, the forty two year old Hanover man charged with committing a serious offense against nineteen year old Marguerite Noel, of Bonneville, is in the Adams county jail awaiting the opening day of August term of criminal court when the amount of his bail will likely be fixed.

The Miller case probably will not come up for trial until November and if the defendant succeeds in raising bail this month he will be released from custody until that time.

ROMANCE OF CAMP COLT

Former Soldier Here Marries Hanover Girl.

A romance that began back in the days of Camp Colt came to an end with the marriage of Miss Margaret Hurst, of Hanover, Thursday evening, to Harry M. Sherman, Muskegon, Michigan. The bridegroom, who was overseas during the war, is now employed as an electrician at Muskegon, where the newlyweds will make their home. Among those from Gettysburg present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stallsmith and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, Miss Buelah Rider and William Rider, Jr.

A little good face cream used daily will save you lots of annoyance about your complexion; select a good one at The People's Drug Store, The Rexall Store.—advertisement 1

H. T. WEAVER, HEEL COMPANY OFFICER

Well Known Business Man To Be Connected With New Industry.

One of the most important developments in the organization of the Detachable Heel and Rubber company, of Gettysburg, became known today when it was announced that H. T. Weaver, owner of the town's largest dry goods store, had accepted the vice presidency of the new company and had become a substantial stock holder.

Officials of the company in announcing Mr. Weaver as the vice president of the $200,000 corporation, expressed great satisfaction in securing his services and stated that the sale of stock had progressed far beyond their expectations. Thus far, they said, there had been no solicitation in the sale of stock and that investors all through this section of Pennsylvania and parts of northern Maryland had voluntarily subscribed.

A meeting of the finance committee of the company will be held this evening in the offices of the company. It is expected the president will be selected at this time.

LAW SUIT OVER CAT

Stahler Drug Company Sues to Regain Valuable Feline.

Harry Stahler, a former student at Gettysburg College and a frequent week-end visitor in Gettysburg, is part owner of the Stahler Drug Company which began suit Friday to regain possession of a Maltese cat. The cat is valued at $250 and it is alleged that Christian Meeh, the present possessor of the cat, took her when he left the employ of the Stahler Drug Company to go to another concern.

Sheriff Hamilton, armed with a writ, brought the cat to the Court House, but Meeh put up $500 bond and got the cat back. The ownership of the cat will be decided at the next session of the court.

Meeh claims that he formerly owned the mother of the valuable feline, and that he had brought the mother of the cat to the store some time ago; that this is one of a litter of four kittens that he had fed and considered his when he left the Stahler Drug Company.

Evidently neither Meeh nor the Stahler Drug Company are afraid of the jinx. Perhaps they would not feel so confident of ultimate victory in the courts if they would consider for a minute and realize that they went to law over a cat on Friday, the thirteenth.

RAISED MONEY BY DANCES

Hops Will be Held at Round Top Every Wednesday.

The treasury of the Gettysburg Independent baseball team is $40.65 richer as the result of benefit dances given at Round Top on Tuesday and Friday nights.

Approximately two hundred and fifty persons attended the Friday affair and about two hundred the previous one.

Music was furnished at both occasions by the orchestra of Bert Rodgers.

On Friday night John Raymond, manager of the Independents, announced that dances for the benefit of the Independent team would be held every Wednesday night throughout the remainder of August and the first part of September. The receipts from these dances, he stated, would enable the Independents to take a trip to Philadelphia in a few weeks and to procure some needed equipment.

MARK BREAM BUYS LOT

At a public sale in Cashtown this morning F. Mark Bream, Carlisle street, purchased a lot adjoining his property there for $4725. Prior to the purchase by Mr. Bream the lot was owned by Milton H. Plank, of Harrisburg.

FAIR NEXT WEEK

(By Associated Press) Washington, Aug. 14—Weather predictions for week beginning Monday North and Middle Atlantic States: warm and generally fair but with probable local showers Wednesday or Thursday.

BATHING caps and shoes—all sizes. People's Drug Store, The Rexall Store.—advertisement 1

"O-SO-GUD" pretzels keeps the hungry man away.—advertisement 1

SADLER TELLS OF HIGHWAY DELAYS

Commissioner Makes Statement Explaining Why Builders' Prices Are High.

ON AN INSPECTION TOUR

Embargoes And Uncertainty in Freight Shipments Have Jeopardized Construction. Crisis Reached.

Inability of contractors to obtain shipments denied them because of embargoes and the allocation of open top cars to the transportation of coal is seriously hampering Pennsylvania's road construction program.

This announcement was made today by State Highway Commissioner Lewis S. Sadler who is spending the week in southeastern Pennsylvania on a tour of inspection. Commissioner Sadler last week made an inspection trip throughout the northeastern section of the State.

"What I am seeing on these trips," said Commissioner Sadler, "proves to me that the difficulties confronting the contractors on highway work have been multiplied since the war era and are most discouraging."

"One of the first actions taken during the war period was to declare highway construction a non-essential. Many contracts at the time were located on the main trunk lines of traffic, where portions of the surface were torn up and, if left in that condition, would have made it impossible for use of the public. Some measure of relief came about through the issuance of priority orders by the War Industries Board, and subsequently through permits obtained from the U. S. Highways Council.

"In the present crisis, however, conditions are changed materially. Several hundred contracts now in force are being seriously hampered through the inability of the contractors to obtain shipments which are being denied them by reason of embargoes and orders allocating open top cars to the transportation of coal. Many of these contractors have stocks of certain materials on hand that will result in serious loss to them if compelled to carry over another season."

"This situation unfortunately places highway construction in jeopardy and it would seem timely that proper consideration might be given to the importance of highway work and its effect on industry and the economic life of the State. The roads are the first factor in the handling of the products of our industries, even before they are placed at railroad points for shipment. The need for road development was never more apparent and when public sentiment and interest is as strong as has been evidenced the last eighteen months at the same time that such substantial provisions have been made for this class of work, it seems that curtailment at this time would be a step backward in our progress to develop a comprehensive system of durable highways so vital to our people."

"There are 267 contracts in force at the present time, involving the construction of 993.29 miles of highways. This season to date 109.24 miles have been completed, which mileage could have been more than doubled with reasonably favorable conditions."

HANOVER TRUST INVOLVED

Chief Depository of Ponzi Closed by Commissioner Allen.

(By Associated Press) Boston, Aug. 14—Bank Commissioner Allen took charge of the affairs of the Polish Industrial association conducting a private bank at 37 Cross street in this city. Henry H. Chmielewski, president of the Hanover trust company, the chief depository of Charles Ponzi, which was closed last Wednesday by the commissioner, is president of the Industrial association. Commissioner Allen said the loans of the association were either bad or of doubtful value and there was virtually no cash left. He said its affairs were hopelessly interwoven with those of Hanover Trust company. The capital of the association is $13,775 and it had deposits of about $350,000.

We are compelled by the Interstate Milk Producers Association of Pennsylvania to advance the price of milk to the farmer more than one (1) cent a quart therefore on and after August 16th the retail price of milk will be 13 cents a quart and 7 cents per pint. Gettysburg Ice & Storage Company.—advertisement 1

LIGHTNING HIT GOLDEN CROSS

Daughter of Mr. And Mrs. Frank Altoff Tells Damage to Orphan Asylum.

In a letter to her parents Friday, Sister Marina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Altoff, of High street, told of a severe electrical storm which passed over St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, Boston, where she is stationed, early this week. The storm was the most severe that has visited that section in many years, and came on the hottest day of the year.

Lightning struck the big golden cross on the tower of St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, which is in charge of the Sisters of Charity, shattered it to bits and ripping its way through the roof passed into the ground without harming any of the one hundred seventy five children and sisters in the building.

There was no hysteria or screams and with their charges about them the sisters led in prayer, while the rain and hail rattled upon the roof and against the windows.

It was almost at the beginning of the storm that the orphan asylum was struck. The children had been out in the yard playing. With the first warning flashes of lightning they were called inside and had scarcely assembled in the playroom when there was a blinding crash that shook the structure to its foundation.

Pieces of the cross, that stood on the tower since the erection of the building over half a century ago, were hurled in every direction, and even into a yard on the opposite side of the street. Flying pieces of slate from the roof were everywhere. The glass skylight over the dormitory was shattered into a thousand pieces. No one was in that part of the building at the time. Realizing that the building was struck the Sister Superior climbed to the tower and opening the door she found the room filled with smoke but no fire.

A remarkable incident was that no one in the building was hurt, but the shock of the crash, as it struck the building, knocked a woman and her baby from a chair in their home across the street from the asylum.

NO HOPE FOR SUFFRAGE

Tennessee Speaker Says Opposition is Strong.

(By Associated Press)

Nashville, August 14—"I do not believe that men of Tennessee will surrender honesty conviction for political expediency or harmony," Speaker Walker of the Tennessee House of Representatives declared in a telegram to President Wilson today. He was replying to a message from Mr. Wilson last night urging the Tennessee house to concur in the action of the State Senate in ratifying the suffrage amendment.

Speaker Walker said in his message to the President that he did not attempt to express the views of the other members of the Lower House but spoke for himself alone "which on the Anthony amendment are contrary to yours."

STOCK REPORT

Shorts Nervous in Competition. Closing is Easy.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 14—Nervousness of shorts caused them to bid for stocks in competition with those who were taking the long side of today's market but the resultant advances were not large except in special cases. Belief that the position had become untenable and the improvement in railway credits and crop conditions were temporarily sustaining factors. Week-end profit taking, pressure against Baldwin, United States steel and the sugar shares and further recessions in United States government war issues caused some impairment of the earlier advances.

The closing was easy. Total sales approximated 125,000 shares.

CELEBRATES 81ST BIRTHDAY

John Slentz, judge of election in the Second Ward, was kept busy Friday receiving the congratulations of his many friends on his eighty-first birthday.

NEW styles for fall now on display. J. D. Lippy & Son, Tailors.—advertisement 1

OLYMPIC STADIUM FORMALLY OPENS

Athletes of Thirty Nations Are Ready For Great International Meet.

AMERICANS ARE CHEERED

Antwerp, Belgian City, Scene of Impressive Ceremony. Flags of Many Nations Decorate Huge Field.

(By Associated Press)

Antwerp, August 14—The Olympic Stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and fluttering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly 30 nations—who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill. The spectators were as cosmopolitan as the mass of contestants and in the ranks of the athletes were citizens of all the countries whose flags, flying from official, diplomatic or consular boxes, made the scene a colorful hodgepodge like a warship decked out with all her pennants.

Two flags, the German and Austrian, which flew over the stadium in the Sixth Olympiad at Stockholm, were missing and these countries, barred from participating in the meet, as were all enemies of the Entente powers in the war, had no representation either in the arena or in the diplomatic boxes. The Russian flag, also was missing.

The cheering was continuous as the athletes, filing in from the open space just back of the stadium where they had formed, nation by nation, swung into the arena headed by the members of the International Olympic committee. They marched in alphabetical order, though the Belgians, alphabetically first in the list, took last place, courteously, as hosts. The athletes of the various British dominions yielded their alphabetical precedence to march just behind the Australia participants from the mother country.

(Continued on Third Page.)

COX SEES NEW DAY

Presidential Candidate on Speaking Tour in Ohio.

(By Associated Press)

Zanesville, O., Aug. 14—Hope for "a new day" of national progress was expressed by Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, in a brief address here today while en route to Wheeling, West Virginia. "I still have hopes for a progressive government," said Governor Cox.

"We have readjustments to be made. It can't be made by reactionary force and claim the confidence of the people."

"A pledge to make war impossible," declared the governor, "was made when America entered the war. The message that I shall take from one end of the country to the other," he added, "is the pledge we gave to the living and the dead. I simply insist we shall keep the faith."

At villages along the route small groups of people were waiting the governor and waved their greetings and outside Zanesville the governor was met by a reception committee of several hundred persons on the court house plaza.

HARDING TO SPEAK AT FAIR

(By Associated Press)

Marion, Aug. 14—Announcement was made here today that Senator Harding would speak Wednesday, September 8, at the Minnesota State Fair. He intends to make no other speeches on the trip.

The speech is to be devoted primarily to agricultural issues but in it Senator Harding also expects to enlarge upon his previous declaration regarding the League of Nations and the country's foreign policy.

Senator Harding said his acceptance of the Minnesota invitation did not in any sense mean a departure from the front porch plan of campaign.

WANTED: men and women for the canning season. Good prices paid. Make application now and ask about our interesting proposition. Orrtanna Canning Company.—advertisement 1

WOMAN KIDNAPED COUGHLIN BABY

Crank Says Rose McDonnelle Aided in Hiding Child Since June.

STAGE FAKE LYNCHING

Men Had Rope Around Pasquale's Neck But He Stuck to Story. May Have Killed Child.

Philadelphia, Aug. 14—Augusto Pasquale, "The Crank," was almost lynched a few nights ago. He had a rope around his neck, the other end of which was thrown over the limb of a tree, while masked men stood about tugging at it and asking him to confess all he knew, or else he would be jerked to eternity.

But the confessed accomplice in the Coughlin kidnaping has nerves of iron. In the face of apparent death, he adhered to the story he has told ever since his capture, and stoutly declared that he could not locate the missing baby. Then the rope was loosened and he was released.

For the lynching was a fake. It was staged by the State Police as one of their third degree methods to get the truth out of the man, it was stated Thursday night. But this extreme method failed, as all others have.

Where the fake lynching took place has not been divulged. All that is known is that Pasquale was taken from Philadelphia in an automobile on Wednesday night and was lost to public view until Friday, shortly before noon, when he was taken to Norris-town by the State Police.

While threatening crowds stood about the Norrisstown jail, Augusto Pasquale, who has been held for 12 days by the State police for his confessed participation in the Coughlin kidnaping, was given his first hearing Thursday, and made additional statements bringing the authorities a little closer to the solution of the mystery.

For the first time Pasquale made known the name of the woman who he says, took part in the abduction of 15-months-old Blakely Coughlin from his parents' home, in Norrisstown, early in the morning of June 2. He says she is Rose McDonnelle, who formerly lived at Twelfth and Vine streets, Philadelphia. This woman, Pasquale insists, had the baby in her possession from the time it was stolen until he last saw her a few hours before his capture at Egg Harbor, N. J., on August 2.

Pasquale also said that he had an understanding with the woman and with Joe Gamachuck, the man he says did the actual kidnaping. This understanding was to the effect that if he (Pasquale) was captured during his attempt to exact ransom from George H. Coughlin, father of the missing child, the two others would take the baby into hiding and would not show themselves anywhere until they learned from the newspapers what had been done to Pasquale.

Detectives Now Puzzled
"And here I am," said Pasquale, "captured. They know I am captured and you will not find the baby until you show them that I am not treated badly. They are going to wait and see what happens to me at my trial."

This new attitude on the part of the prisoner is a puzzle to the detectives working on the case. Before he had added to his previous confession they were pretty well convinced that all his stories were lies, that Gamachuck was a mythical person and that Pasquale himself done the kidnaping alone, or had killed the child while committing a burglary and then had thrown its body away.

Now, however, the detectives are divided into two camps. One group believes Pasquale may be telling the truth and began Thursday night to search for the woman he called Rose McDonnelle. The other group insists that the man is still lying and told the story of his arrangement with his alleged confederates solely to save himself from possible torture.

TO STOP BANK ROBBERIES

Citizens of Iowa Organize Shotgun Brigades.

(By Associated Press)
Dubuque, Iowa, Aug. 14—Shotgun brigades of citizens and officers of the peace are being organized in this part of the state in an effort to stop and apprehend thieves, particularly bank robbers. State authorities have taken the initiative in organizing the posses, according to Sheriff Frank Kennedy. It is planned that when a robbery is reported notice be sent throughout the county in which it occurred and counties nearby, and the "shotgun" men called together to patrol all highways.

The Iowa Bankers' Association has sent out notices that it is believed that at least three gangs of bank robbers have worked in the state recently, and with the aid of speedy automobiles soon are long distances from the scenes of the robberies.

SOVIET IMPOSES DRASTIC TERMS

Would Place Poland Entirely at Mercy of Red Government.

Washington, August 14—A plebiscite to determine the future of Russian Poland is one of the peace terms drawn up by the Bolsheviks coincident with the first proposal of an armistice by the Polish government. The right of unrestricted propaganda in this territory during the year which would intervene before the plebiscite also would be demanded.

These and the other terms of peace which are believed to have been formulated for submission at the first meeting between the Soviet and Polish emissaries, were received here Friday in official circles. While not regarded as final because of the events favorable to the Bolshevik cause since their formulation, the terms are accepted in Washington as illustrative of the intention of the invaders to impose peace conditions of a dramatic nature.

The other terms, as received here, include the right of the Soviet government to unrestricted transmission of all code messages across Poland between Russia and Germany; the turning over of all salt and coal mines in Poland for operation by the Soviet government, and the right of unrestricted travel for all Soviet nationals across the Polish frontiers without the Polish visa on passports.

The provision for a plebiscite in the portion of Poland formerly belonging to Russia, together with the stipulation that the Bolsheviks be granted permission to disseminate propaganda without restriction in that territory for one year before the vote, is viewed by officials here as likely to be especially obnoxious to the Poles. The granting of such demands would, in the opinion of officials here, certainly result in the loss to the Warsaw government of Russian Poland, for all Polish national feeling in that region, it is considered, would be blotted out by the Bolshevik propaganda.

A RELIC OF OTHER DAYS Ancient Bicycle, Popular 40 Years Ago, On Streets.

The younger residents of Gettysburg were treated to a sight on Friday afternoon at 2:30 that was familiar to their fathers thirty or forty years ago, when William Stitley, of Baltimore street, rode an ancient bicycle over the main streets of the town. The bicycle was one of an ancient model, with a high front wheel and small rear wheel.

The appearance of young Stitley was a signal for an outburst of surprise from a party of tourists at the City Hotel, Chambersburg street. The cycling party was stopped for a few minutes while snapshots were taken of the cyclist and his followers. After this little interruption, the procession continued on its way.

The bicycle is the property of Gene Richardson, of Gettysburg. Mr. Richardson is having the bicycle repaired, so Gettysburgians will soon be treated to some high class cycling stunts when the old timer comes out of its retirement. At present it is resting in state at Swope's Bicycle Shop, on West High street.

MCGRAW'S MIND A BLANK Does Not Know How Slavin Became Unconscious.

(By Associated Press)
New York, August 14—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants told the district attorney's office that his "mind was blank" as to how John C. Slavin, musical comedy actor, received a fractured skull while in his company early last Sunday morning.

McGraw, who left the Lamb's club house with Slavin and a formal naval officer after he had engaged in fistie cuffs there with William H. Boyd, another actor, declared he was unable to say how Slavin came to be lying in front of the McGraw home unconscious.

The Youth (dramatically)—"Refuse me, Hortense, and there will be one less suitor in the world tomorrow!" The Girl—"If by that you mean you are going to kill yourself, go ahead. But if you mean that you will marry someone else, I suppose I'll have to accept you."—Houston Post.

That Which Befits Us
That which befits us, embosomed in beauty and wonder as we are, is cheerfulness and courage, and the endeavor to realize our aspirations, shall not the heart which has received so much trust the power by which it lives?—Emerson.

"Waiter, are these eggs strictly fresh?" "I really can't say, sir. I've only worked here about a month."—New Orleans States.

FOR SALE: Motorcycle with side car, three speed, electric lights, speedometer, tandem attachment, good tires. Recently overhauled. See Joe Codori, Central Garage, Gettysburg, advertisement

REDS AT GATES OF POLISH CAPITAL

Hand to Hand Fight Outside City Limits. Poles Weaken.

GOVERNMENT WILL MOVE

Bolsheviks Attacking City From Three Sides. Peace Negotiations Are Suspended. Citizens to Take Arms.

Paris, August 14—Closing in upon Warsaw from the north, east and southeast, the Bolshevik hosts are now within 20 miles of the capital, the little doubt is felt here that they will be in the city before the peace negotiations are concluded.

General Haller's army, holding positions along the Vistula, Narew and Bug Rivers in a country offering few natural advantages for defense, is being relentlessly pushed toward the capital by the Bolsheviks, who are speeding up their advance.

The northern Reds, according to the latest news reaching Paris last night, had passed Pultusk and were marching southward on the capital down the valley of the Narew. Another column was advancing between the Narew and the Bug, while south of the Bug the enemy had reached and passed the line running from Tuszew through Piwki, Dobrze, Kaluszyn, Targlow and Latowicz to Zelechoff. Farther south the enemy had succeeded in forcing a passage of the Bug and was moving on Lublin.

The Bolshevik cavalry along the Prussian frontier has made another bound forward and is now 40 miles beyond Mlawa, almost half the way to Thorn.

In other words, the Reds are advancing all along the line except in the extreme south.

Citizens of Warsaw to the number of 100,000 have pledged themselves to defend the capital to the last breath. But it is felt here that such an organized effort cannot seriously affect the fate of the city. This, apparently, also is the view of the Polish government, which is reported to be considering moving to Posen if it satisfied there is no chance of the Soviet forces suspending hostilities at an early date.

Warsaw, August 14—Contact with the Bolshevik lines in spots is only 40 kilometers (about 26 miles) from Warsaw, says an official communique issued last night.

The communique describes the Warsaw front along the line Wyszow, Tuszew, Kaluszyn and Ciechanow as weak.

Preparations are being made to prevent the Bolsheviks from reaching the Posen district.

Bolshevik cavalry detachments, driving westward after the capture of Mlawa, have reached the Wkraouer region, and the towns of Biezun and Radsanovo. They are now less than 30 miles from the Vistula River.

Russian Soviet forces which are attacking the Polish lines northeast and east of this city have reached a point 25 miles from Warsaw. A state of siege has been declared here by the military governor. Civilians are not permitted on the streets after 10 o'clock at night, and cafes must close at 9 o'clock.

BANDITS CAR WRECKED

Hold Up Girl. Get Money. Then Leave It

(By Associated Press)
Philadelphia, August 14—Held up by two armed bandits Pauline Ruvinaky, 22 year-old-bookkeeper, fought desperately to obtain possession of an envelope containing $1500 of her employers payroll money which she had just drawn from bank. She was thrown to the street and the money wrested from her hand. Hundreds of pedestrians stood by. The bandits jumped into a stolen motor car and dashed through crowded streets closely pursued. They lost control and crashed into an elevated railway pillar wrecking the machine. They got away but the money was recovered.

BANDITS GET LIQUOR

Hold Up Truck Driver. Stole 150 Cases.

(By Associated Press)
Baltimore, Aug. 14—Marooned on a lonesome country road near Fullerton, Maryland, with a disabled motor truck laden with 250 cases of whiskey, Walter Sklon, Newark, New Jersey, driver of the truck and his negro helper were surprised by four armed men early today who held them at bay with pistols while they loaded 125 cases aboard another truck and drove away according to a story told police here by Sklon. Several arrests were made shortly afterwards but only three cases were recovered.

Sklon was on his way from Baltimore to Newark, New Jersey with liquor which is the property of the Zuckor-Steiner company, of Newark.

SUFF VICTORIES IN TENNESSEE

State Senate Ratifies Amendment. Only Four Votes Against It.

Nashville, Tenn., August 14—The Tennessee Senate Friday by a vote of 25 to 4 adopted the resolution providing for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment. Even the most optimistic of the suffrage forces were surprised at the large majority. Seventeen votes were necessary, but most polls had listed from 20 to 22 as favorable and the highwater mark was set at 24.

The suffragists, certain of ratification by the Senate, have proceeded from the beginning of the legislative session with the expectation that the real fight would be in the lower house, and the Senate vote had hardly been announced before the workers were redoubling efforts to secure favorable action by the representatives.

The House adjourned Friday until Monday afternoon without reference to suffrage, but it was stated later the committee to which the resolution was referred would meet Monday night to consider it. There was no indication what action would be taken, but in connection with rumors that the opposition might attempt to bury it in committee, it was recalled an effort of suffragists to force a report yesterday was defeated Thursday night by a vote of 8 to 6, with four members absent.

An hour before the Senate convened the galleries and aisles were packed with spectators among whom the active pro and antisuffrage workers predominated. When the seventeenth vote in favor of ratification was recorded the pent-up enthusiasm of the suffrage cohorts went beyond restraint and forced a temporary suspension of the rollcall.

SPROUL EAGER TO START BRIDGE

Sees No Reason Why Memorial to War Heroes Should be Delayed.

"I am very glad to hear that people are sending for the revised plans for the new Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial Bridge and I hope we will be able to let a contract and start work as soon as possible thereafter this fall," said Gov. William C. Sproul while in Harrisburg on his way from Mount Gretna to Virginia where he will spend the remainder of the month.

The Governor asked many questions regarding the bridge and prospects of bids and was very much pleased when informed that a number of big experienced contracting firms had sent for plans and details of the building.

"This bridge will be the Commonwealth's memorial to its soldiers, sailors and marines and I am eager to get it started. We have unfortunately lost much time, but a prompt start, and I see no reason why we should not have one, will overcome much of it" continued the Governor. "The bridge will be a beautiful one and something in which everyone can take pride."

WAR ON PISTOL TOTERS

Governor of Kentucky Says None Will be Pardoned.

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 14—Governor Edwin P. Morrow has declared war on "pistol toters", as Kentucky calls those who habitually carry firearms concealed. In a formal statement he characterized them as undesirable citizens, a menace to good order and public safety.

The Governor declared that hereafter persons convicted of carrying deadly weapons may not expect easy executive clemency, because, no pardons will be forthcoming from his office. He called upon the courts to assist in saving the state from what he termed the "disgrace of its homicides," and urged them to faithfully execute the law which provides for jail sentences for the first offense and for the second disfranchisement for two years.

BENDERS HOLD PICNIC

Motor to Boiling Springs For Annual Outing.

The Lutheran and Reformed Sunday Schools of Benders Church held their annual picnic at Boiling Springs, Thursday afternoon.

The picnickers left Benders Church early Thursday morning and were carried to the scene of the picnic in about fifty automobiles.

Lunch was served in the park, after which the Table Rock baseball team challenged and defeated the members of the picnic nine by the score of 9-8.

FOR SALE—12 inch Westinghouse electric fan, good as new. Will sell reasonable. Mr. Smith, Plank Apartments, 24 Baltimore street.—advertisement.

PERSONAL NOTES AND BRIEF ITEMS

News Notes From Around Town and Throughout the County.

MANY DAILY VISITORS

Mention of Guests From Nearby Towns. Short Paragraphs of General Interest.

Miss Mabel Irene Leonard, of Bendersville, has gone to her home in Clearfield to spend her vacation.

Mrs. J. McCrea Dickson returned to her home on Broadway, Friday night, from a trip to Asbury Park.

Mrs. Carl Carling, of High Bridge, New Jersey, and her two sons, Robert and William, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Kendlehart, West Middle street. Mrs. Carling was formerly Miss Helen Kendlehart.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Funkhouser, Springs avenue, arrived in Gettysburg on Friday evening after spending a week at Atlantic City.

Miss Eleanor King and Miss Joanna King who were the guests of relatives and friends in Wellsville and Rochester, New York, have returned to Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Musseman and daughter, Lorraine, of Harrisburg, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Claire Sowers, on York street.

John F. Dapp, of Harrisburg, president of the college board of trustees, spent a short time in Gettysburg Friday evening.

Miss Helen Whisler, of Culdens, has returned to her home after a visit of some time at Shippensburg.

Jerry Frock, former student here who lives in Harrisburg, is spending several days in town with friends.

Miss Lillian Kissinger, Baltimore street, has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Donald Stahler, of Lebanon.

Misses Buelah and Helen Leeper have returned to York after visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson Lentz and family, near Gettysburg.

Miss Helen Neidemeyer, Rev. W. K. Fleck, wife and son, William, all of Lititz, Pa., are spending the week-end with Mrs. Fleck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Sheads, of West Middle street.

Miss Emma J. Crouse, Littlestown, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crouse, Broadway.

Edmund W. Thomas, vice president of the First National Bank, has returned to Gettysburg from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank M. Mellor, Lincoln avenue, has gone to Philadelphia for a week.

JOIN SONS OF VETERANS

Seventeen Candidates Initiated Into Membership at Biglerville.

Twenty five members of Gettysburg Camp 112, Sons of Veterans, journeyed to Biglerville Friday evening and initiated seventeen candidates for membership.

This brings the total membership of the Camp to one hundred and fifty four members in good standing and fifteen applications for membership are being considered.

The initiation was conducted by Dr. Henry Stewart assisted by his staff of officers, Senior Vice Commander Danper Wierman, and Junior Vice Commander Dr. Stauffer, Patriotic Instructor William L. Meals Esq., and Chaplain G. Harry Roth.

R. C. Miller gave a very interesting talk on the duty of every eligible man and why he should join the Sons of Veterans. William L. Meals Esq., Dr. Stauffer and others from Gettysburg, Dr. Wolf, of Arendtsville, Charles E. Deatrich and H. U. Walter, of Biglerville, spoke of the pleasure it gave them to be affiliated and identified with the Sons of Veterans.

Camp No. 112 is making a drive for two hundred and fifty members which they are confident of obtaining within the next sixty days, as most of the members are becoming interested and active in the work.

Tonight a committee will visit Fairfield for a preliminary meeting with forty eligibles who desire to be identified with the order.

WEDDED ON ROCK ON 13th

Minister Held Rabbit's Foot As He Read the Words.

Monticello, N. Y., August 14—To knock out the Friday the thirteenth "jinx," Miss Jennie B. Robinson, of New York, and Frank G. Lenox, of Sheepshead Bay, stood on a rock located at the boundary of three states yesterday to be married.

The Rev. A. A. Walker, holding a rabbit's foot in one hand and a prayer book in the other, performed the ceremony.

The rock is located in the Delaware River at Port Jervis, where New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey come together.

1-2-3 Pair Lots of LOW SHOES at very SPECIAL PRICES are shown in our windows today. If your size is in the lot, you can't resist—Both Men's and Women's.

All low shoes in the store are reduced at least 15 per cent—Many styles even more. Lots of folks have taken advantage of these special prices—Have you?

ECKERT SHOE AND STOCKING STORE

Washing Machines

We have just a couple electric washers left that should attract your attention Come in and see them. Also a few exceptionally smooth running hand power machines, which can be bought right.

Adams County Hardware Company

Asbestos Shingles

We have the exclusive agency for Adams County, being distributors for same, and would like to have some reliable dealers to handle them.

We also carry a good stock for retail trade.

Bigham's Hardware Store

Biglerville, Pa.

If You Need An Easy Shave

try our Razors, Straps, Brushes, Soap and Hones. We have a nice line of Safety Razors from $1.00 to $5.00. Let us show you.

Robert S. Reindollar & Bro.

Fairfield, Pa.

Cigars Are Going Up

But why change from your favorite quality of cigar, when you can buy United Cigars for less than you have been paying and your Satisfaction Is Guaranteed? Some of our best brands are The Orlando, Dubonnet, Rivalo and Ricoro.

Double Coupons Every Saturday.

Shuman's Medicine Store

Candy—Sodas—Toilet Articles

COUGHLIN BABY ALIVE, SAYS SUSPECT

Principals in the Coughlin baby kidnaping case: Mrs. George R. Coughlin, Norris-town, Pa., mother of Blakely Coughlin, the kidnaped baby, who is shown in the upper right; below—Augusto Pasquale, alleged to be "the Crank" in the mystery. After being caught he was grilled constantly for five days and nights. He finally promised to send an "ultimatum" to his associates to return Blakely.

BENDERSVILLE

Bendersville—Mrs. W. N. Fickes, of Harrisburg, was a recent guest of Mrs. H. W. Eldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alty Peters, daughters, Ethel and Susan, and son, James, of Altoona, are guests of Mrs. Dill Bream.

Mrs. Annie Hartman, of Harrisburg, spent last Sunday with her uncle, E. E. Carson.

Miss Jennie Wetzel, of Hanover, spent several days recently with her sister, Mrs. William Baumgardner.

Misses Mary Peters and Anna Mitchner are on a trip to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Bream spent Sunday at Lucknow.

Mrs. Allen Sheely and Mrs. Luther Miller left on Thursday morning for Cape May where they will be the guests of their cousin, H. W. Raf-fensperger, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. House entertained for several days this week the former's brothers, Frank House, of Pittsburgh; Charles House, of McKeesport, and nephew, Charles King, and wife, of Pittsburgh; Stanton House, of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Susan Dull and daughter, Mary, have returned to their home in Cashtown after a week's visit with the former's sister, Mrs. W. W. Dettler.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Converse and daughter, Anne, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Kathryn Blocher, of Hamburg; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Percier, New York City; Master Wayne Brame, of Harrisburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Cullings.

Miss Mary Scott has returned from a week's visit to Gettysburg.

MARKET PRICES STEADY

Dealers Did Not Succeed in Selling Out Wares.

The supply again exceeded the demand at the curb market Saturday morning. There was a large amount of goods on hand at the close of the market. This was probably due to some extent to the unwillingness of the public to pay the price asked for some of the commodities for as usual there was a large number of people attending the market.

Apples, tomatoes, beets, corn, and beans especially were in abundance. Large amounts of the former articles remained on the hands of the dealers. There was also a large supply of new potatoes but this fact did not reduce the price. Otherwise the market was in about the same condition as last week in regard to prices. Peas sold at .20, one-quarter peck.

The following prices prevailed:

Potatoes, pk.	.65—70
Blackberries, box	.20
Eggs, doz.	.48
Apples	.30
Carrots	.05
Beets	.05
Lima beans, qt.	.25—35
String beans, pk.	.25
Tomatoes, basket	.25
Cabbage, head	.05—15
Cucumbers, small, doz.	.10
Peas, 1-4 pk.	.20
Squash	.05
Cheese, pt.	.10
Rhubarb	.05
Onions, box	.10
Flowers	.05
Plums, box	.10
Huckleberries	.30
Peaches	.25—30
Cauliflower, a head	.15
Honey, per box	.30
Chicken, lb.	.40
Rolls, doz.	.25
Bacon, lb.	.40
Corn beans	.30

SURPRISE PARTY

Fourteenth Birthday of Edna Stevens Celebrated by Friends.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens recently in honor of the fourteenth birthday of their daughter, Edna. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Bucher, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mehning, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartzell, Mrs. Walter Snyder, Mrs. David Hoffman, Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mrs. Samuel Hartzell, Mrs. Mervin Sanders, Misses Anna Eberhart, Lily Allison, Edna Stevens, Minerva Hartman, Hazel Snyder, Cordelia Hartman, Elsie Geiselman, Marianna Jones, Esther Stevens, Edith Wright, Kathleen Thomas, Viola Cutshaw, Catherine Crone, Gertrude Redding, Bernetta Redding, Romaine Hartman, Ethel Stevens, Mary Snyder, Messrs. Luther Jones, Elmer Snyder, John Schultz, Chester Mehning, William Stevens, Earl Snyder, Paul Mehning, Clarence Schultz, Charles Eck, Albert Stevens, Guy Crone, Earl Snyder, John Hartman, William Jones, Lawrence Redding, Philip Redding, Curtis Kime, Luther Stevens, Fred Mehning, Carroll Redding, Clair Stevens, Crosby Hartzell, Robert Crone.

WEST POINT

West Point—Mr. and Mrs. George Eppelman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cluck.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wenk and daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.

Calvin Taylor.

Mrs. John Wenk spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. William Taylor, of Bendersville.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gochenour and Mr. and Mrs. Miley Yohe were Mrs. Sarah Gochenour, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gochenour and children, George, Mae, and Mildred, of near Arendtsville; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gochenour and daughter, Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gochenour and children, John, Bernice, Clair and Mabel, of near this place.

Edward Wright visited at the home of Jacob Garretson, Sunday.

Mrs. John Sheaffer and sons, Dale, Bruce, Ralph and Archie, and daughter, Rema, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Black, of Wensville.

Rev. Martin, of York Springs, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fohl and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Taylor, Sunday.

CHURCH NOTICES

Church of the Brethren
Stratton Street: Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; Christian Workers' meeting, 7:00 p. m.; preaching, 8:00 p. m. Mummaburg: continuance of revival services by Rev. J. I. Baugher, of Lineboro, Md., Sunday morning at 10:00 a. m. Marsh Creek: Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.

Episcopal

Services Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock conducted by Rev. Alex. McMillan, of Carlisle.

Conewago Presbyterian
Hunterstown: Sunday School and Bible classes, 9:30 a. m.; divine worship, 10:30 a. m. at which time Rev. Seth R. Downie, former pastor of this church and now pastor of the church at Frostburg, Md., will preach the sermon.

Biglerville U. B. Charge
Paul O. Shettel, pastor. Centre Mills: preaching, 10 a. m. Sheeley's: Sunday School, 1:30 p. m.; preaching, 2:30 p. m. Biglerville: Sunday School, 9:00 a. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m.

Gettysburg Methodist
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m. Union service in the Methodist church. Subject of sermon, "Paul's Supreme Ambition." Special music.

New Oxford Methodist
Sunday School, 9:15 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 by the pastor.

Marsh Creek Presbyterian
Rev. D. W. Woods, pastor. Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; church services 10:30 a. m. Rev. H. C. Alleman D. D., will preach.

Gettysburg U. B.
Rev. W. R. Glen, pastor. Sunday School, 9:30; Christian Endeavor, 6:30. No preaching.

Salem U. B.
Sunday School, 9:00; no preaching services.

Trinity Reformed
Rev. Paul R. Pontius, pastor. Morning worship, 8:30. Rev. Andrew H. Smith, superintendent of Hoffman Orphanage, will present the orphan cause to the congregation. The children's choir will sing. Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. Evening worship at 7:30 in the Methodist church, union services, with sermon by Rev. Daniels.

Cashtown Reformed Church
Rev. Clark Heller, pastor. McKnightstown: Sunday School, 9:00 a. m.; morning worship, 10:00. Cashtown: Sunday School, 1:00 p. m.; worship, 2:00 p. m. Fairfield: Sunday School, 9:00 a. m.

Presbyterian
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:45.

St. James Lutheran
Sunday School, 9:15 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m., sermon by Rev. W. K. Fleck, of Lititz.

Biglerville Lutheran
Sunday School at St. Paul's, 9:00 a. m.; preaching, 10:00 a. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; missionary program, 7:30 p. m.

Bender's Lutheran
Sunday School, 1:00 p. m.; preaching, 2:00 p. m.

Christian Science
Services Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Reading room open from 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

HEZEKIAH S. MYERS

Retired Farmer Dies of Infirmities at Porters.

Hezekiah S. Myers died Friday morning at 5 o'clock at his home in Porters from infirmities, aged 70 years, 4 months and 23 days.

Mr. Myers was a retired farmer and resided at Porters for nearly 40 years. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Myers, and was born in York county. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Emma Danner, and the following brothers and sisters—Samuel Myers, York; Mrs. Julian Boehler, Matthias Myers, Jefferson; Mrs. Amanda Snyder, George Myers, Sinsheim; Mrs. Emma Swartz, Sheaffer's Church.

Funeral, Monday, from the house, services, and interment at Lischey's at 9 a. m., Rev. J. N. Faust officiating.

TOO TIRED TO FIGHT

SAYS SUGAR WILL GO MUCH LOWER

Predict Price Will Drop to 18 Cents Soon And Lower, Maybe.

Sugar at 18 cents a pound within a month!

This prediction of a New York authority on sugar is of interest to every Gettysburg household and local housewives, who have been compelled to pay as high as 30 cents a pound for sugar, are looking forward to the time when the price of that commodity will be more reasonable.

According to the New York authority there has been a gradual decline in sugar prices during the past two or three weeks due to an increased supply attracted by the high prices. With the increased supply, and the resultant decrease in demand prices began to fall and are still on the decline.

Prices will not decline as much as 8 to 10 cents a pound within the next two weeks, as predicted by some wholesalers, in the opinion of the man quoted above. He said that such a decline in that period would mean the financial collapse of thousands of concerns throughout the country. Raw sugar delivered in New York is being quoted now at around 14 cents, but very little is available at that price, it is said. New beet sugar from the Pacific coast will soon be available and it is generally believed that sugar will be plentiful this winter at reasonable prices.

LANTZ IN WRONG STATE

Revealed That He Stole Singly Machine in Maryland.

Recent developments in the case of Howard Lantz, of Deerfield, Maryland, who stole the Ford machine of Earl Singly, at Pen Mar park and then drove into the same garage at Fairfield where the car had been overhauled the week before, reveal that he cannot plead guilty to larceny in Adams county.

This fact was brought out when Earl Singly, upon the request of Sheriff John Hartman and District Attorney Raymond Topper, took a trip to Pen Mar and found that his machine was standing on the Maryland side of the line at the time it was taken.

Lantz can plead guilty, however, to the charge of bringing a stolen machine into Adams county and appear later before the Washington county court at Hagerstown on a larceny charge.

Great amusement was caused in Fairfield at the time of the arrest of Lantz when he and a friend engaged in a fight while both were handcuffed.

Our bodies are but dust, but they bring praise to Him who formed them. Dull and tuneless in themselves, they can become glorious harps on which the music of piety may be struck to heaven.—Punshan.

"I guessed from the way the girl was using the deaf and dumb sign language that she was happy." "I suppose she was telling a secret she had on hand."—Baltimore American.

DRAMA OF LOVE PROVED TRAGEDY

(Continued from First Page.)

whether it was "legal for him to marry a 16-year-old girl. He later is reported to have discovered that the girl's age would be no bar to the ceremony, and is said to have gone back to Washington and furnished the apartment preparatory to the wedding.

However, Thompson is declared to have come back to the girl and told her frankly that in spite of his love for her, he would be unable to marry her because he was only "legally separated", and not absolutely divorced from his wife in Paris and for that reason would lay himself open to arrest on a charge of bigamy if he married the girl of his heart.

Put Aside Fancy Clothes

Miss Sneeringer had large brown eyes, an unusually clear complexion and masses of black hair. Her beauty was often remarked by the tourists, who visited the hotel kept by her aunt, Mrs. Anna M. Slagle, in which the girl worked as a waitress.

Thompson, it is said, told the girl first of his estrangement from his wife, whom he left in Paris, and of his 14-year-old daughter, who was with her, and whom he could not see. He told her, too, that she resembled this daughter, and that he was afraid of losing her, too.

Miss Sneeringer had attractive clothes, and she wore them when Thompson first started to call on her at the hotel. Through his influence she soon discarded these and dressed in the most conventional garb she could find. She wore her black hair down her back in schoolgirl style, and Thompson never persuaded her to arrange it atop of her head.

Girl Deeply In Love

Most of their talks, according to Mrs. Slagle, occurred when the two took long walks, and after these Miss Sneeringer always expressed love and infatuation for Thompson. She said she forbade her niece seeing Thompson and ordered him to stay away from the hotel. The girl told her, however, that if she was not permitted to receive Thompson at the hotel she would go to Frederick and meet him there. The aunt then gave her permission for Thompson to continue calling at the hotel. These visits continued regularly until they disappeared from the hotel Wednesday afternoon.

It is believed that the girl had considered committing suicide for several weeks, for the pistol with which she shot herself was the property of A. M. Comer, clerk at the hotel. He said he missed it from his room more than two months ago. He said he always kept it loaded, hanging on a nail in the wall. The pistol which Thompson used was purchased only a few days ago in Emmitsburg.

Thompson, it is said, lived in constant fear that he would be killed. Whenever he had been drinking, it is said, he expressed this fear and surrounded himself with a bodyguard paying them handsomely to see that no harm came to him.

OLYMPIC STADIUM FORMALLY OPENS

(Continued from First Page.)

Great Britain. This brought Brazil first in line behind the official committee.

The American athletes, about 300 strong, were cheered frequently not only by their compatriots in the stands, but by the throngs who recognized that the group marching behind the stars and stripes were among the strong contenders for victory in the Seventh Olympiad.

It seemed that there were thousands of Americans in the stands. Every soldier from the Army of Occupation on the Rhine who could possibly secure leave was there in khaki. Jackies from the cruiser Frederick, sailors from the American merchant and passenger liners in the harbor and hundreds upon hundreds of tourists swelled the delegation from across the Atlantic until, in some parts of the stadium, at least, it seemed to be a regular American crowd. The Belgians, of course and also the French and English appeared to be out in force.

A glance at the list of nations participating in this Olympiad gives an idea of the cosmopolitan character of the athletes and crowd. Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Chili, Denmark, Egypt, Estonia, Spain, United States, Finland, France, Great Britain, Greece, Holland, British India, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Monaco, Norway, New Zealand, Portugal, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia and Yugo-Slavia.

Of these, Brazil, China, Egypt, Spain, and British India did not participate at Stockholm in 1912.

CURES TWO LEPROS

BOSTON—Leprosy, believed incurable, is stated to have yielded finally to treatment devised by Dr. F. H. Parker, in charge of the leper colony on Penikese Island, Mass. In three years Dr. Parker is declared by Dr. Carey of the State Board of Health, to have cured two young men at the leper colony.

LICENSES REACH 500,000

Half Million Motor Tags Issued at Harrisburg.

Notwithstanding official information issued by the bureau of extension of the State Highway Department that automobile licenses were being issued in series under 490,000 the department has announced that license No. 500,000, about which there had been so much speculation, had already been issued to United States Senator Boies Penrose. The Senator had asked for that number and inquiry developed the fact that he had obtained it. The extension bureau has issued no statement regarding it.

NOTICE

Letters Testamentary on the Estate of Jos. E. McMaster late of Mt. Pleasant Township, Adams county, Pa., deceased, having been granted to the undersigned residing on R. 9, Gettysburg, all persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims will present them for settlement, to

CHARLES E. McMASTER
Executor.

Or,

George J. Benner, Esq.
Attorney.

CHARTER NOTICE
IN THE COURT OF COMMON
PLEAS OF ADAMS COUNTY,
PENNSYLVANIA.
No. — of August Term 1920.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the above Court on Monday, the 20th day of September, A. D. 1920, at 10:30 o'clock A. M., under the provisions of the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to Provide for the Incorporation and Regulation of Certain Corporations", approved April 29, 1874, and the supplements thereto for the charter of an intended corporation to be called "FLOHR'S CHURCH CEMETERY ASSOCIATION", the character and object of which is the maintenance of a public cemetery or place of burial or sepulchre for the dead, and for this purpose to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by said Act of Assembly and its supplements.

The proposed charter is now on file in the office of the Prothonotary of said Court.

JOHN D. KEITH,
Solicitor.

FOR SALE

100 acre farm located about four miles from Gettysburg, along main highway, hard road, improved with eight room house, large bank barn. Contains about 20 acres of meadow and timber. This is one of the best farms in Adams County and can be bought right.

C. A. WILLIAMS,
Real Estate Broker
No. 42 Hanover St.
Gettysburg, Pa.

NOTICE

In the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pennsylvania.

In re: Application of Martha E. Mathews for order and decree as a feme sole trader.

Notice is hereby given that Martha E. Mathews, of Gettysburg, Pa., wife of Thomas R. Mathews, has filed her petition in the above Court praying that she be declared a feme sole trader under the provisions of the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in such case made and provided; and that said petition will be considered by the said Court on the 20th day of September, A. D. 1920, at ten thirty o'clock, a. m. at which time all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the same shall not be granted.

WILLIAM HERSH,

Attorney for Petitioner.
Aug. 14, 1920.

NOTICE

In the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pennsylvania.

In re: Application of Mary E. Asper for order and decree as feme sole trader.

Notice is hereby given that Mary E. Asper, of Reading Township, Adams Co. Pa. wife of Jacob Edw. Asper, has filed her petition in the above Court praying that she be declared a feme sole trader under the provisions of the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in such case made and provided; and that said petition will be considered by the said Court on the 20th day of September, A. D. 1920, at ten thirty o'clock, a. m., at which time all persons interested may appear and show cause if any they have, why the same shall not be granted.

WILLIAM HERSH,

Attorney for Petitioner.
Aug. 14, 1920

UNDERTAKING

I have arranged to take over the undertaking business of the late Dill Bream, Bendersville, and all calls, either day or night, will receive prompt attention by calling the undersigned, or H. F. Hoffman, Assistant, Bendersville, Pa.

H. B. Bender

Funeral Director

Gettysburg, Pa.

Tire Repairing, Vulcan-

izing, Retreading,

Gates Half Sole Tires

GettysburgRubberCo.

John R. McFetridge, Prop.,

24 Stratton Street, Bell 'phone 111-Y

Before

After

To Men of Moderate Estate

THROUGH the years of your life you have built up for your family perhaps not a large fortune, but a comfortable competence. Naturally you wish to make the safest possible provision in your will for its administration for the sake of your family's future.

IF you appoint this Company as executor under will you may be sure that you have put your family's affairs into experienced, competent, permanent hands. You will be obtaining at a moderate cost, service that you could not expect from an individual trustee.

We invite you to consult our officers about any estate business you may have. We are interested in moderate as well as large estates.

THE CITIZENS TRUST CO.,

of Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG

PENNA.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

Member of the American Newspaper Publishers Association and The Associated Press

Published Daily, Except Sunday
Times and News Publishing Company
Office on Carlisle street, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.
BELL PHONE 6-M
W. LAYERS HAFER, Publisher
DONALD F. IKELER, Editor
Entered August 15, 1904, at Gettysburg, Pa., as second-class matter, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

RATES: Single copies to non-subscribers, 3 cents.
Subscriptions: $1.00 per month in advance.
Mailed outside of Gettysburg for 50 cents per month.
Our advertising columns are open to all candidates of all parties.
Want ads: One cent per word each insertion. Four cents a word if guaranteed first page position. Resolutions of respect, poetry and memorials, one cent per word.

The Gettysburg Times takes absolutely no part in politics, being neutral on all such matters. Anything that appears in our general news columns, concerning state or national politics, is furnished by sources which are strictly non-partisan. Member of the Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein. All rights of reproduction of special dispatches herein are also reserved.
If you receive THE TIMES by mail you can find the date up to which you are paid on the pink address label on your paper. The date will be changed within ten days after your money is received at The Times Office.
A number of complaints are received from readers of The Times because of late receipts of our issues sent through the U. S. Mail, and we take occasion to suggest that we have no control over the publication after its delivery to the Post Office authorities. Any delay in transit should be immediately reported to the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

SPORTING COLUMN

BLUE RIDGE RESULTS

Hanover Loses One More Game in Ninth.

Although outlast almost two to one, Martinsburg trounced Frederick before a large home crowd, Friday afternoon by the score of 6-3.

Bill King, Frederick pitcher, held Martinsburg batters to six hits but poor support on the part of his mates cost him the game.

Waynesboro won from the league leaders by the score of 4-2, and incidentally broke their losing streak. Owens allowed Hagerstown only five scattered hits.

Once more Hanover had a game in their hands, and once more threw it away. The score stood 7-3 in favor of Hanover when Chambersburg came to bat in their half of the ninth at the latter city Friday afternoon. By a batting rally, Chambersburg scored five runs which made the final score 8-7 in favor of the Maroons. Walter Herrell, former Gettysburg star, was the losing twirler. "Mike" Fuhrey and Satterlee were the leading stick-smiths.

BLUE RIDGE STANDING

	W.	L.	Per.
Hagerstown	44	28	.611
Martinsburg	41	33	.554
Waynesboro	39	34	.534
Frederick	35	34	.507
Hanover	29	43	.403
Chambersburg	29	43	.403

CARPENTIER MADE $100,000

Jack Curley Resents Insinuations of American Sporting Writers.

Georges Carpentier has returned to France with approximately $100,000 in his treasury that he did not have when he came to this country, according to Jack Curley, former wrestling promoter who had charge of the Frenchman's tour. Curley makes the announcement to correct the impression that the French champion carried away close to a half million dollars.

Georges Carpentier is going to make good use of the money he captured on his American tour. He has planned to use every penny of it to put his coal mine at Lens into operation, and this with a view to having an established business in operation and on a paying basis when the day arrives that he must hang up the gloves for all time. Carpentier has owned extensive coal properties at Lens for several years. When the war broke out, however, his property was made a part of the battle grounds, and everything on it of any value was totally destroyed.

Speaking of the Frenchman's receipts on the tour, Curley said recently, "I dislike the nasty insinuations that have been made by certain sport writers, to the effect that Carpentier cleaned up a fortune here and then beat it back to his native land. Georges did not come into the possession of his money by any other than perfectly legitimate means, and in no city in which he showed were the fans forced to attend. It is none of my business, of course, but I want to say that the Frenchman is one of the cleanest chaps in the world, a perfect gentleman and a sincere friend, and I think it is unfair to garble the reports of his American tour and then deliberately lie about the amount of money he obtained."

Curley declared he was in a position to know of every cent Carpentier made while in this country. He says the Frenchman received about $122,000 paid the government about $12,000 and spent about $10,000 in the purchase of clothing and other things which he desired to take back to his native land. Curley says Carpentier will return early in September, possibly on the 6th.

WILLIAMS BEAT ERTL

Fight Finally Staged After Five Postponements.

After being postponed upon five different occasions the big bantamweight fight between Kid Williams, former bantam champion of the world, and Johnny Ertle, one time claimant of the title, was staged, in Oriole park, Baltimore, Friday night, before a crowd of 4,000 fans.

Williams won a clean cut decision over Ertle and came very close to winning by a knock out according to the Baltimore sporting writers.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

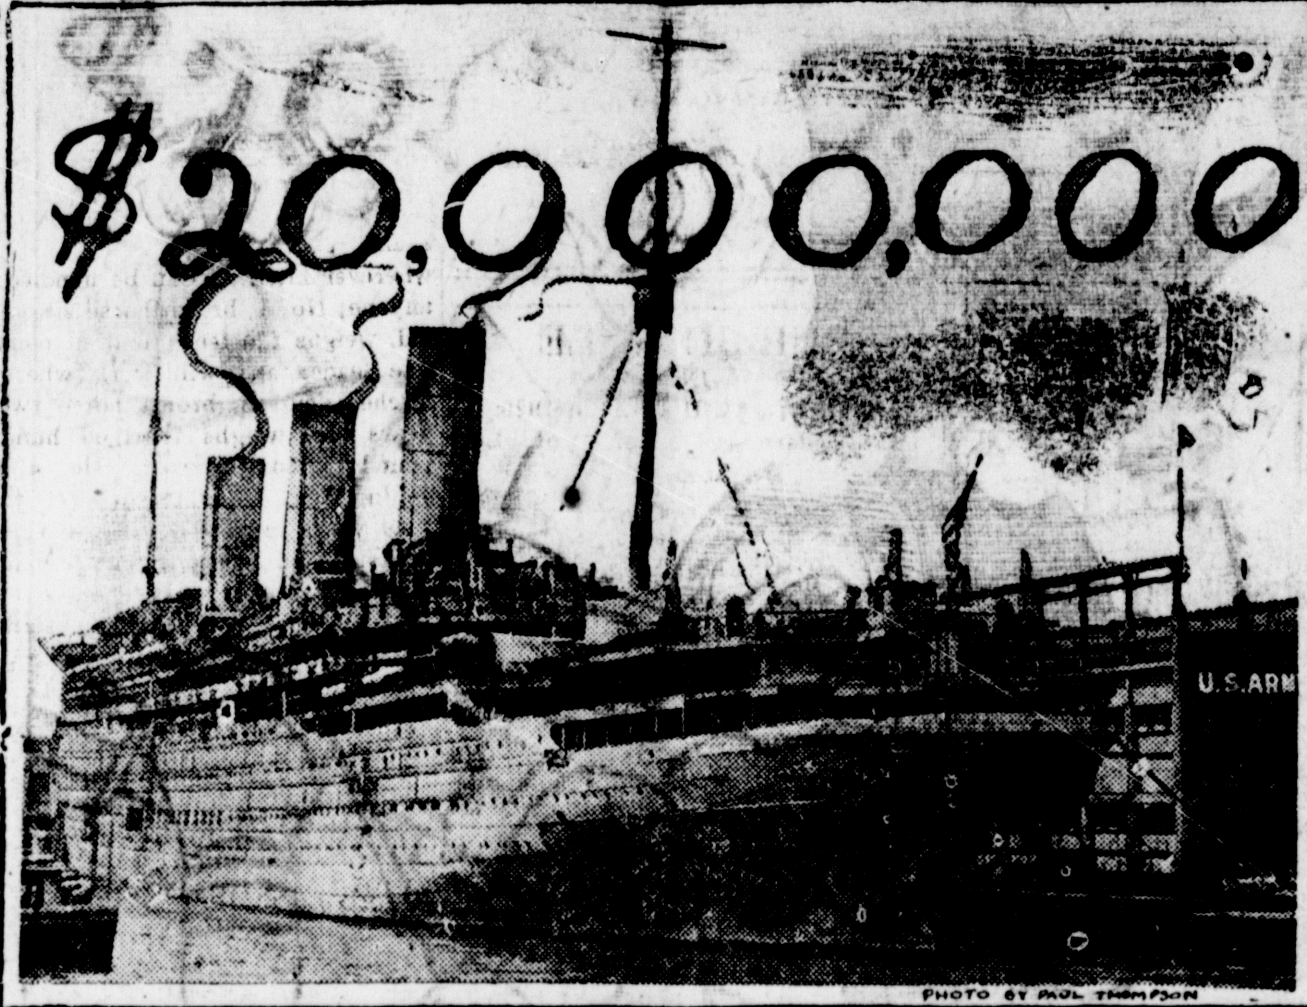

Peerless Team Easily Defeats Tigers Friday Evening.

The Peerless team run away from the Tigers in the Playground Basketball league on Friday evening by the score of 16-5. Pitzer and Fugitt each 197 Acres, Fulton County, 4 miles south of Lincoln Highway. Very good set improvements; 2600 bearing apple trees, 60 acres; good timber; balance under cultivation; price $8,500. Including this year's crop.

JOHN L. MUSSER, Realtor.
249-51 Woolworth Building.
Lancaster Pa.

UNCLE SAM IS LOOKING FOR THIS SHIP'S FURNISHINGS

HOBOKEN, N. J.—Who looted "Levi Nathan?" "Levi" is the name the doughboys gave the Leviathan, former Vaterland—pride of the German merchant marine and greatest ship afloat. "Levi's" furnishings, silver, china, etc., etc., worth $2,000,000, are missing. When the Leviathan was reloaded by the United States as a troop ship, all its costly "in'ards" were ripped out. Now, it is up for sale, but all its pretty things can't be found.

had three goals from the field.
Tigers
Muselman, G
Gordon, G
Haner, G
Twomey, C
Gilbert, F
Brown, F
Goals from field: Pitzer 3; Fugitt 3; Bream 1; Weikert 1; Gilbert 2; Brown 1. Fouls—Gilbert 1.

STANDING OF CLUBS

	W.	L.	Per.
Gorillas	2	0	1.000
Cubs	0	1	.000
Peerless	1	1	.500
Adelphians	1	0	1.000
Tigers	0	2	.000

CABINET ROOM WON

In a nine inning contest played on Nixon field, Friday evening, the Cabinet Room team of the furniture factory defeated the Mill Room nine by the score of 4-2. Batteries: Tawney and Miller for the winners, Murray and Dillman for the losers.

TOURNAMENT RESUMED

Walter D. Reynolds and Edgar Miller Win Matches.

Play was resumed in the Playground Tennis tournament Friday after several days' lapse, due to unfavorable weather. Edgar Miller defeated

(Medical Advertising)

ITCH!
Money back without question if HUNT'S Salve fails to cure ITCH, ECZEMA, RINGWORM, TETTER or other itching skin disease. Try a 75 cent box of our risk.

PEOPLES DRUG STORE

The Reading
16 Day Excursion TO OCEAN GROVE
Asbury Park or Long Branch
TUESDAY, AUGUST 24
From Fare
Reading $5.20
Harrisburg 6.80
Middletown 7.00
Gettysburg 7.70
Carlisle 7.80
Shippensburg 8.30
Lancaster 6.70
Columbia 6.85
Proportionate Fares From Principal Intermediate Stations.
War Tax Eight Per Cent Addition on All Fares.

16 Day Excursion TO OCEAN GROVE

These special excursion tickets will be good in coaches only on any train day of excursion to Philadelphia, thence on any train via Bond Brook to destination within time limit of ticket, but passengers should endeavor to reach Philadelphia in time to take Special Through Train Leaving Reading Terminal Aug. 24 at 2:00 P. M., arriving Long Branch 5:05 P. M., and Asbury Park—Ocean Grove 5:25 P. M. Tickets limited to return within sixteen days.

Tickets must be presented to Ticket Agent at destination to be validated, and will not be honored for return passage until validated. Children between 5 and 12 years of age half fare.
STOP OFF ALLOWED AT PHILADELPHIA
Going and Returning Within Time Limit of Ticket.
ASK TICKET AGENTS For Full Information or Write D. LORAN MAUGER, District Passenger Agent, Reading, Pa.

ed Harold Roth in semi-finals, 6-2; 6-1.
Professor Walter D. Reynolds won from Carroll McDonnell in straight sets by a score of 6-1; 6-1.
Mark Eckert lost to Edgar Miller in their preliminary match.

GYPSY ESCAPES POLICE

Sought by the State Police on the charge of having deserted his wife for a 15-year-old girl, said to be Margaret Smiley, of Dry Run, Franklin county, Harry Zimmerman, a gypsy horse trader, made his escape by wading the Susquehanna river opposite Millersburg Thursday afternoon. The troopers had followed the trail of Zimmerman early in the day until they reached the deserted camp of the nomads near Millersburg. When they came to Millersburg they found Zimmerman, the girl and the gypsy band on board the ferryboat that plies between the two shores. The boat was ready to leave. Zimmerman hastily stripped himself of his clothing and jumped into the river. The police boarded the boat and ordered the captain to hurry after the fugitive. When they found he could make better progress than the boat they opened fire, one of seven bullets striking dangerously near the fleeing man. He refused to surrender and soon outdistanced his pursuers.

NOTICE

I have for sale ZENITH CARBURETORS for all makes of cars. Will be glad to give prices for ZENITH CARBURETORS for trucks and tractors. I also do all kinds of Automobile welding.

Robert L. Walter
Aspers, Pa.

ROAD NOTICE

By the Bond of Viewers of Adams County in Road Cases as follows:

No. 1, April Sessions 1920.
Public Road proposed to be laid out in Mount Pleasant Township leading from the Bonneauville—Granite road to New Oxford to road leading from Salem Church to the Kilpatrick road.

No. 2, April Sessions 1920.
Public road proposed to be vacated in Huntingdon Township, beginning in road leading from Carlisle to New Oxford and ending at the buildings on the property of John D. Miller.

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by the Boards of View respectively, in the above mentioned road cases in the Court House at Gettysburg, on Wednesday, the 18th day of August, 1920, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at which time and place all persons interested, who see proper to attend, will be heard.
Board of Viewers

Funeral Director
W. O. ROUTSONG
Bendersville
Day or night calls promptly attended to.
Automobile Service
United Telephone Bell Telephone

To Great the Long Warm Summer Days Are These Cool-Looking Frocks Embodying in Placid Form All the Newest Whims of the Summer Mode For so Many More Just as Charming in the August PICTORIAL REVIEW Patterns
AND THE
FASHION BOOK FOR SUMMER
Pictorial Review Co. 222 W. 3 Street, New York, N. Y.

FOR SALE

3-4 ton White Truck $390.00
2 Ton Nash Truck, with electric lights and starter.
Dodge Touring car.
1920 Ford Coupe.

S. G. Bigham,
Biglerville, Pa.

They Are Here
At Your Nearest Store

"O-SO-GUD"

PRETZELS
Fresh from the ovens—Baked in a clean, sanitary bakery.
Ask for them by name.

Republic Truck

Sale and Service Station.

Parts for all Republic Trucks can be furnished without delay.

Having secured the agency we can furnish all models promptly and at lowest prices.

We also have at bargain prices the following cars:

New Maxwell cars in stock.

Used cars.

1918 Maxwell Touring.

1917 Ford touring.

The above are in first class condition.

Bendersville Garage

FREE BULLETINS

FREE BULLETINS
For Farm, Garden and Home.
The United States Department of Agriculture has issued a large number of Bulletins designed to be useful on the farm and in the home. They are for free distribution and will be mailed on application.

Control Them.	790
Turkey Abortion of Cattle.	791
Foods Rich in Protein.	824
Trapping Moles and Utilizing Their Skins.	832
Canning, One-Period, Cold-Pack Method.	839
Capons and Caponizing.	849
Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables.	853
Tobacco Hornworm Insecticide.	867
Swine Management.	874
Making Butter on the Farm.	876
Home Storage of Vegetables.	879
Saving Seed for Home and Market Garden.	884
Back-Yard Poultry Keeping.	889
Breeds of Dairy Cattle.	893
Rats and Mice.	896
Home-made Fruit Butters.	900
Everbearing Strawberries.	901
The Self-Feeder for Hogs.	906
Information for Fruit Growers about Insecticides, Spraying Apparatus, Insect Pests.	908
Cattle Lice and How to Eradicate Them.	909
Killing Hogs and Curing Pork.	913
Growing Peaches—Sites and Cultural Methods.	917
Growing Peaches—Varieties, etc.	918
The Principles of Liming of Soils.	921
Some Common Disinfectants.	926
Farm Home Conveniences.	927
Rodent Pests on the Farm.	932
The Farm Garden in the North.	937
Cereal Smuts and Disinfection of Seed Grain.	939
Water Systems for Farm Homes.	941
Care and Repair of Plows and Harrows.	946
Care and Repair of Mowers, Reapers, Binders.	947
The Bag-Doll Seed Tester.	948
Dehorning and Castration of Cattle.	949
The Disinfection of Stables.	954
Important Poultry Diseases.	957
Cooling Milk and Cream on the Farm.	976
Barnyard Manure in Eastern Pennsylvania.	978
Labor-Saving Practices in Hay-making.	987
Steam Sterilization of Seed Beds.	996
The Culture of the Logan Blackberry.	998
Growing Fruits for Home Use.	1001
Canada Thistle—Method of Eradication.	1002
The Gas Tractor in Eastern Farming.	1004
The wheat Jointworm and Its Control.	1006
Preparation of Bees for Outdoor Wintering.	1012
Practical Hints on Running a Gas Engine.	1013
Wintering Bees in Cellars.	1014
Strained Milk.	1019
Machinery for Cutting Firewood.	1023
Currants and Gooseberries.	1024
Strawberry Culture in Eastern Part of U. S.	1028
The Feeding of Horses.	1030
An Illustrated Poultry Primer.	1040
Strawberry Varieties in the O. S.	1043
The City Home Garden.	1044
Laying Out Fields for Tractor Plowing.	1045
Baling Hay.	1049
Country Hides and Skins.	1055
Production of Late or Main Crop Potatoes.	1064
Determining the Age of Cattle by the Teeth.	1066
Feeding Hens for Egg Production.	1067
Judging Beef Cattle.	1068
Rabbit Raising.	1090

GETS "HOMER" IN BARNYARD GOLF

The above picture looks like a frame-up. But it isn't. The remarkable play was made July 29, 1919, at Slobberfield Field, Akron, Ohio. Uncle Hughie Palmer, the 73-year-old champion of the Industrial Horsehoe Pitching Association, and these two ringers into the stake after President Haynes of the National Horsehoe Pitching League, had stood up a pair of leathers. In shoe vernacular it was a "horse" on Haynes. This is as great a feat in horsehoe pitching as hitting a home run in baseball.

NEARLY DROWNS IN JAR

Baby, Wedged Head-First in Receptacle, Saved When it is Smashed.

Baltimore, Aug. 14.—Falling unnoticed into a ten-gallon water jar, the 16-months-old child of Mrs. Floyd Mielke, Holbrook, Baltimore county, had a narrow escape from death by drowning Thursday while at play in the yard. The mother, engaged in hanging clothes, failed to notice the absence of the little one. Completing her task, she missed the baby and began a frantic search, fearing the youngster had been kidnapped.

Running toward the pump, Mrs. Mielke suddenly caught sight of the baby's feet protruding from the filled water jar, which stands directly beneath the spout. She tried to extract the baby's body, but it was wedged tightly.

Mrs. August Mielke, the child's grandmother, and Mrs. Fletcher Conroy came to the mother's assistance and succeeded in getting the tot free by smashing the jar. The babe was nearly suffocated. As no physician was within call the three women, after four hours continuous work, involving nearly every known phase of first aid, restored the little one to consciousness, and today it was playing in the yard.

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: one ton Ford truck. Used about ten months. J. E. Chronister, R8, Gettysburg.—advertisement

FOR SALE: Dodge touring car. 1918 model in good running order. Apply City Garage.—advertisement

FOR SALE: two bulls; horse; good three inch tread wagon. Harry Beard, R4, Gettysburg.—advertisement

NEW styles for fall now on display. J. D. Lippy & Son, Tailors.—advertisement

WANTED

WANTED: experienced grocery clerk. Apply American Stores Company, Times Building.—advertisement

WANTED: small unfurnished apartment, rooms, or small house, by man and wife. Address "A" care Times.—advertisement

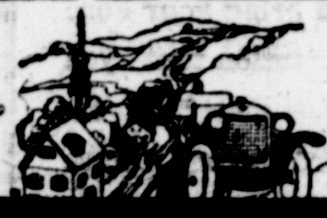

WANTED: clerk for grocery store. Address "L" care of Times office.—advertisement

FOR RENT

FOR RENT: a partly furnished or unfurnished 8 room house. Address Z care of Times office.—advertisement

LOST

LOST door key, Wednesday afternoon on West Middle or Carlisle street. Reward if returned to Times office.—advertisement

Where's the worst hill in your neighborhood?

The one that's hardest to climb. The one you would like to take on "high." Put in your crank case and have a go at it. See how much more power your motor delivers. See how TEXACO MOTOR OIL seals up the space between piston rings and cylinder walls, how it prevents leakage of "gas," and how it conserves all the energy of your mixture.

TEXACO MOTOR OIL

THE CITIZENS OIL CO.

W. F. Codori, Mgr.

Distributors of Texaco Products
48 York Street, Both 'phones
Gettysburg, Pa.

High grade kerosene can be gotten at all times.

Lawyer—"You say your wife attacked you with a death-dealing weapon. What was it?" Meek Little Man—"A fly swatter sir."—American Legion Weekly.

FIRST U. S. LINER SAILS FOR GERMANY

NEW YORK—The U. S. S. Sasquehanna, which is shown sailing from New York for Bremen and Danzig, is the first ship to fly the American flag which has entered the New York-Germany passenger service since the war. It is also the first ship of the U. S. Mail Steamship Co. to be placed in commission. It carried 1699 passengers. Inset is Captain George Darden.

CIGARETTE-SMOKING SNAKE

Motorists Stricken Google-Eyed at Discovery.

Bellefonte, Pa., Aug. 14.—Motoring along Fishing Creek road through the Sugar Valley Mountains, a party of eastern State autoists were confronted by a huge blacksnake coiled in the middle of the road, smoking a cigarette.

"Gosh a-mighty! exclaimed the men, as they rubbed their eyes to make sure they were not seeing things. But true it was, the blacksnake was there, all nicely coiled, with his head sticking up about eight inches and in his mouth a cigarette.

Thoughts of the devil in the guise of a snake and a few other things flashed through the minds of the men, but just then they heard somebody laughing, and out from the brush stepped several young men, who proved to be members of Professor J. A. Ferguson's bunch of foresters from State College, who were camping nearby. They told the autoists they had killed the snake just a short time before, coiled it up in the road and stuck the cigarette in its mouth just to see what would happen when the first man who came along would discover it.

FAIR OVER AT TANEYTOWN

Good Program Brings Out Record Attendance.

Friday marked the ending of one of the most successful annual Carroll

CHARTER NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, August 31st, 1920, at 10:30 A. M., by Samuel F. Snyder, Henry Scharf and Richard M. McKey, under the provisions of the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled, "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" approved April 29th, 1874, and the several supplements thereto and amendments thereof, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called Surefoot Steel and Rubber Company, the character and object of which is manufacturing rubber compounds, rubber heels for footwear and articles for domestic use of which rubber and rubber compounds are a component part, and for this purpose to have and possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges by said Act of Assembly and the supplements and amendments thereto conferred.

G. J. BENNER

JOHN D. KEITH

Solicitors.

FOR SALE

International 4 cylinder 8-16 kerosene tractor, run less than two seasons. I have no further use for it.

Harry S. Stoner,

United 'phone 632-22
Ortanna, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE

ON FRIDAY, AUGUST 20th, 1920.

The undersigned, heirs of Levi Splangler, deceased, will sell at his late residence on High street, Biglerville, the following personal property: HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Five piece parlor suit; six rocking chairs, hallrack; organ; desk; combined desk and book case; leather covered couch; couch; invalid's wheel chair; Norwood sewing machine; Brussel's ingrain and rag carpet; pictures; window curtains and shades; ten foot extension table; one half dozen plank seated and one half dozen plank bottom chairs; cane seated rocker; two bedroom suits; two iron bedsteads; springs and mattresses; dresser; several wash stands; mirrors; toilet set; feather beds and pillows; corner cupboard; kitchen cupboard; drop leaf table; refrigerator; dishes; crocks; kitchen utensils; canned fruit and jars; butchering tools; large copper kettle; washing machine; tubs; window and door screens lawn mower; garden tools; cutting box good saddle.

STOVES

Jewel double heater; No. 8 Princess range; small egg stove; three burner oil stove with oven; two burner gasoline stove; lot of stove pipe and many articles not mentioned.

Will also offer the real estate consisting of a seven room frame house with bath; slate roof; also frame barn, chicken house and hog pen. These buildings are on a lot 52x177 feet. An adjoining lot will be sold with the property, or separate. The buildings are all practically new.

Sale to commence promptly at 12:00 o'clock, when terms and conditions will be made known by

S. E. SPANGLER

H. S. SPANGLER

Make your family proud of their home

Your wife and children cannot take a pride in their home if the house is faded and weather-beaten. That means no paint. And, for mansion or cottage, the best paint is

DEVOE The Guaranteed Lead and Zinc Paint

Fewer Gallons—Wears Longer

We guarantee Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint to be absolutely pure. When you paint with Devoe you save paint-money—fewer gallons to buy; you save labor-money—fewer gallons to spread; you get a better looking paint-job—pure paint; and it will be a longer time before you need another paint-job.

Why have a shabby house any longer? It will cost you more to paint next year. Paint with Devoe now and insure your home against decay. Stop in to-day and let us give you a Devoe color card and a practical booklet—"Keep Appearances Up and Expenses Down."

CHESTER A. LEAS,
Gettysburg, Pa.

DOINGS OF THE DUF

And It Goes so Easy.

BY ALLMAN

PUBLIC SALE

ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 1920.

Intending to quit teaming, the undersigned will have public sale, at the Battlefield Hotel Stable, of the following:

FIVE HEAD OF HORSES

No. 1, Black stallion, Norman and Hydraley strain, nine years old, weighs seventeen hundred pounds, sound, good worker, and will work wherever hitched. Can be handled by anyone; No. 2, brown horse six years old, weighs fourteen hundred pounds, fine leader and will work wherever hitched; No. 3, brown horse twelve years old, weighs fourteen hundred pounds, good worker; No. 4, bay gelding colt, sired by Senator Hale, four years old, good size and well broken. Can trot one eighth mile in eighteen seconds. Will make fast horse if trained; No. 5, sorrel filly by Sterling, well broken and has good speed and style.

HARNESS

Four sets of front gears; ten new collars; bridles; check lines; etc.; four sets single harness complete; stock saddle good as new.

WAGONS

Two dump wagons; low wooden wheel farm wagon four inch tread; heavy two horse wagon two and one fourth inch tread; two spring wagons; runabout; wooden wheel jog cart; sulkey; bob sled; falling top buggy.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

McCormick mower; International riding cultivator, good as new, bought last spring; weeder; five shovel cultivator; three Oliver Chilled plows; spring harrow; new sixty tooth spike harrow. The above harness, wagons and implements are all in good shape.

MISCELLANEOUS

Picks; shovels; chains; single trees; double trees; dirt scoop; ten tons HAY. Six HOGS, will weigh two hundred pounds apiece.

Sale to begin at 1 o'clock. A credit of six months will be given or three per cent off for cash.

JOHN N. SCHULTZ

Thompson, Auct.

Bream, Clerk.

FOR SALE

Farm containing 96 acres, near Bonneville, in good state of cultivation. Good buildings, fences, etc. Running water in all the fields; also well at house and barn. Plenty of fruit and about 15 acres of white oak and hickory timber.

Will also sell crop, stock and machinery with farm if purchaser so desires, and give possession in the near future.

H. M. Sneeringer,

R9, Gettysburg, Pa.

Near Bonneville

MACHINERY

Columbia wagons, Bug-gies, Steel Wheel Farm Trucks, John Deere Grain Drills, John Deere Lime Drills, Cultipackers and Steel Rollers, Syracuse Plows and Harrows, also repairs. Oliver Shares, Chopping Mills, Wood Saws, John Deere Disc harrows, Corn Shellers for hand or power. Wheel Barrows, Bag Trucks and GAS ENGINES

The above goods are in stock. Come while the supply is here.

How about that corn binder? Get your order in now. John Deere and Osborne.

Have another carload of Emerson Manure Spreaders coming. All who give their orders before the car arrives will get $3.00 off the regular price.

Get your orders in. First come, first served.

W. C. WEIGLE,

Biglerville.

Overland

3442 Miles--25 Men
-27.2 Miles Per Gallon

A STOCK OVERLAND crossed the U. S. A. in 179 hours. Averaged 27.2 miles per gallon.

It was driven night and day over every kind of road by 25 different drivers who never before saw the car.

Overwhelming proof of Overland nimble stamina and extraordinary economy due to light weight alloy steels and Triplex Springs.

Touring, $985; Roadster, $985; Coupe, $1525; Sedan $1575
Prices f. o. b. Toledo, subject to change without notice

Crescent Auto Co.

North Stratton St.

Poth Phones

G. W. WEAVER & SON

Gettysburg, Pa.

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY FUR TRIMMED COATS NOW

Wooltex

Tailor-mades
Designed and Tailored
by The H. BLACK CO.

This Wooltex label means something—it's the maker's guarantee of absolute satisfaction in fashion, fit, fabric and service.

Do you realize that you should buy coats with fur trimming early?

As the season advances the prices of fur increase and the quality grows poorer. Then too, you have a much more complete range both in price and style if you choose early.

Right now is the best time to come in and buy a Wooltex fur trimmed coat.

THE young lady at the left is wearing one of the inexpensive coats which we call "Versatile" because they do so many things well.

The cloth is Duvet de Laine and the fur collar comes in a choice of French Seal, Ring-tail or Nutria.

Both material and design of the other model put it in the more dressy group. Its fabric, Marvella, is rich and soft with a variety of furs to choose from for the collar. These two coats are typical of the large variety of fur trimmed coats which we are showing earlier than usual.

COME IN AND TRY THEM ON

The Mail Man Our Go-Between

The Banking-by-mail Department of the Old First National meets a very distinct need. Through it—

Out-of-town residents are enabled to carry accounts with us as readily and safely as though they lived in the vicinity.

In-town patrons can save themselves visits to the bank when other matters claim their time and attention.

Let us explain how the mail-man acts as our "go-between" in giving this valuable service.

First National Bank
Gettysburg, Pa.

Just as thin as compatible with good wearing qualities—You'll like them.

Palm Beach and Mohair
Suits Reduced
25 Per Cent

FUNKHOUSER'S
"The Home of Fine Clothes"

Center Square

Gettysburg, Pa.

GETTYSBURG MARKETS

Market prices at the Gettysburg warehouses, corrected daily, are as follows:

Purchasing
Wheat	$2.30
Rye	$1.40
New Oats	.75
Corn	.44
Eggs	.45 and .50
Butter	.45 and .50

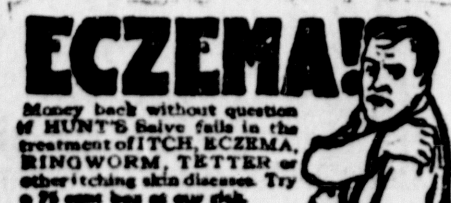

Philadelphia Markets
Corn lower: as to grade and location, $1.68 and $1.75; the latter for No. 1, yellow.
Oats steady: No. 2 white, .97 and .98; No. 3 white, .96 and .97.
Butter firmer: Western Creamery extra 66½; nearby prints, fancy, .65 and .67.
Eggs firmer: nearby firsts, .52 and .54 a dozen; do current receipts, .50; Western extra firsts, .52 and .54; do firsts, .48 and .51; fancy selected packed, .62 and .63.

Baltimore Markets
Stock on the wharves: calves, choice, per lb. 16 and 16½; fair to good, .15 and .16; heavy, per head $25 and $30.
Sheep: per pound, No. 1, .07 and .08; old bucks as to quality, .06 and .07; lambs, spring choice, .14; fair to good, .12 and .13.
Hogs: straight, per pound, .16 and .17; sows as to quality, .13 and .15; live pigs, per pound, .15 and .16; shoats per pound, .14 and .15.
Beef cattle: first quality per pound, .12 and .13; medium 10 and .11; bulls as to quality, .06 and .08½; thin steers and cows, .05 and .08; milk cows, choice to fancy, per head $60 and $80; common to fair, $30 and $50.

Chickens: old hens 4 pounds and over, .38; small to medium, .36 and .37; old roosters, .22; White Leghorns, .35 and .36.
--	--

Claremont Market
Sheep: liberal supply, market easier, $2.60 and $7.50; lambs: $7.50 and $14.75.
Steers: choice, $14 and $14.50; good butcher, $12 and $13; medium, $9.50 and $11.50; common, $6.50 and $8.50.
Hogs: Light supply, market steady: Lights, $17.25; medium, $17 and $17.50; pigs $10 and $13; roughs, $10 and $13.

(Medical Advertising)

PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE

KNUT'S GOLDEN ROAD

ONCE upon a time there lived a princess whose father ruled over a very wild and strange country, for the people knew nothing of many things of which we have use. They dressed in fine cloth, but had no shoes. The men had never learned to tan leather. So all, even the royal family, went about barefooted.

Of course, the stones hurt the tender feet of the princess, so a carpenter made her clogs, or wooden shoes. But these were so heavy she seldom walked.

Out in the mountains about five miles away was young Knut, a shepherd boy, who dried skins for rugs. He dyed the wool all sorts of beautiful colors and sold them at the castle.

One day he brought to the palace a very large rug made from the skin of a huge mountain sheep. It was snow white, and the soft, long hair curled up with a silvery sheen.

As it was spread out on the floor of the great hall the princess came running by. She stood on the rug and smiled with delight at its softness.

"I wish I had a rug like this to cover the whole land," laughed the princess. "It would be fine fun to play out of doors then. I wish I could make all the woods in the kingdom nice and soft and all of a golden color."

The idea took such a hold of her that she wept and asked the king to proclaim a great reward to anyone making such roads in his country. The old king smiled, thinking such an impossible request too absurd to notice.

But the princess sulked, grew thin and unhappy, so at last he consented to proclaim throughout the kingdom that he would give any reward asked to the one who would accomplish what the princess desired.

Knut heard of the announcement made by the king. As he sat in his hut and played the flute he thought of the lovely princess whom he had met. And he wished with all his heart that he could earn the reward, for what he would ask would be not gold, but her hand.

Out in his backyard there was a puddle of dark water which had drained down from some wood shavings. And into it had fallen some weeks before a bit of sheepskin, and there it had lain undisturbed. Knut picked it up. It was smooth and not at all like the fresh skin.

He patted and dried and smoothed the skin, having first washed off the woolly side with hot water and soap. Then he rubbed the skin with a sweet oil till it was soft and pliant. Before him in the damp sand he saw the print of his foot.

"I will make a covering for the princess' foot of this skin," he said aloud. "I will have the wool turned inside, having first dyed it a golden hue. That will keep her feet warm and prevent rocks from hurting her. And this outside skin will wear against the ground and stones."

So, first dyeing the wool a lively yellow, he wrought with his bone needle a lovely pair of shoes. The skin, which was now leather, was on the outside. On the inside was the clean wool, a beautiful golden tint. The next day he went to the palace and presented them to the princess.

"Put these on your feet," he said, "then you can run about over stones and dirt without being hurt. Your road through life will be a golden one; every step you take you will tread on golden softness."

The delighted princess ran to show the king her present, and in a few days the lad had orders to make leather shoes for the king and court. Then the whole nation got shoes. The princess wedded Knut, who had asked for her hand, and at the feast she wore her first golden shoes.

(Copyright.)

LINCOLN WAY THEATRE

PLAYS AND LAYERS THAT PLEASE THE PEOPLE

Ken. S. Lynch Prop.—M. J. McSherry, Mgr.
"The Home of Paramount-Artcraft Pictures."

TONIGHT

Last chance to see

Jack London's

Burning Daylight

A soul stirring story of the Frozen North, the novel that has thrilled millions of readers.

Also

"THE WISEST FOOL"

A two part Comedy

Adults 25c, Children 15c, Plus Tax.

SPECIAL

Monday and Tuesday
WILLIAM RUSSELL

"Shod With Wire"

A thrilling story of the West and one that is filled with action laid in a country where a gun rules. It is a picture that moves swiftly and has no dull moments. William Russell is supported by an all star cast and if you saw him in the Lincoln Highway man you can know what to expect.

ALSO TOM MIX IN

"THE STAGE COACH GUARD"

A two part Western drama. Also a one part Christy Comedy.

First show 6:30, second 8:30. A

Adults 20c, Children 10c, Plus Tax.

WILLIAM FOX presents
WILLIAM RUSSELL
In a romantic love song of the plains
SHOD WITH FIRE
By Harold Bliss
Directed by Emmett J. Flynn

See it at

IN these days of fluctuating prices and value standards, it certainly pays to buy shoes of proved merit.

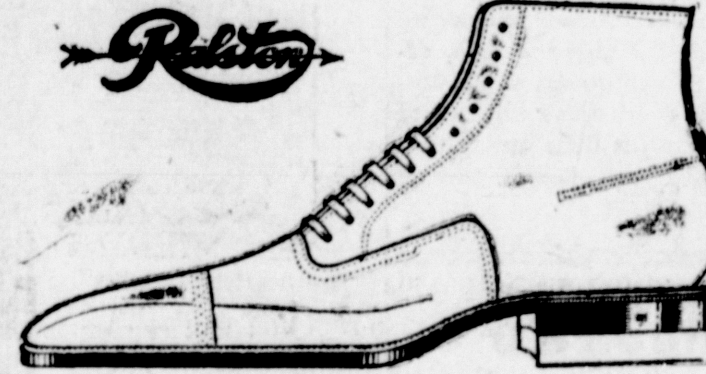

For over twenty years RALSTONS have made good under the test of service.

One of the many reasons why RALSTONS are your kind of a shoe.

O. H. LESTZ,

"The Home of Good Clothes"

Cor. Square and Carlisle St., Gettysburg, Pa.

Pick the Pictures PHOTOPLAY

Always worth while

Daily 6.30, Saturday 6.00, Matinee Thursday, Friday & Saturday 2.15

SATURDAY

Matinee 2:15

WILL RODGERS

Evening 6:00

"The Strange Boarder"

Heart interest, thrills, dramatic moments and pretty touches of comedy are the ingredients which compose this feature. You will be more than pleased after seeing this production.

In addition we will also run
SNUB POLLARD

in

"All Dressed Up"

Adults 20c,

Children 10c,

Plus war tax

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Remember that when you bring your Ford car to us for mechanical attention that you get the genuine Ford service—materials, experienced workmen and Ford factory prices. Your Ford is too useful, too valuable to take chances with poor mechanics, with equally poor quality materials. Bring it to us and save both time, and money. We are authorized Ford dealers, trusted by the Ford Motor Company to look after the wants of Ford owners—that's the assurance we offer. We are getting a few Ford cars and first come first to receive delivery.

E. L. Bowers (Garage)

Biglerville, Pa.

Both Phones

ANNOUNCEMENT

W. M. Conover has purchased half interest in the Pathe Music Store. In the future the name will be Pathe Music Store, McCammon & Conover, Proprietors.

We invite you to examine our machines. We handle the

KIMBALL

SONORA

PATHE and

FRANKLIN

and are in position to do all kinds of repair work. Come in and hear our latest records and sheet music.

Pathe Music Store

McCammon & Conover, Props.

Baltimore Street

Gettysburg, Pa.